

Optional: Science in the News is available each week for students to complete for 1-2 points per week. Forms are either downloaded and printed or are available for students to pick up in the red folders located in the classroom. To receive credit, students need to complete this form and submit on a weekly basis.

Science in the News

Science isn't just in laboratories or classrooms. It is in the news every day, every week. Look through newspapers, magazines, or the Internet and search for science-related topics and articles.

Answer the following questions and either attach paper article or identify complete web address used.

1. I found the attached science article (where) _____

Website address: _____

PAPER ARTICLES USED MUST BE ATTACHED FOR CREDIT

2. The Title of my science article is (what) _____

3. This article is about (what/where/who) _____

4. A brief detailed summary of my article is: _____

---

---

---

---

---

---

5. The most important science fact in this article is _____

---

---

6. The information in this article affects (circle all that apply)

World News
Sports

National News
Business

Local News
Weather